Carbon Conversion Procurement Grants - Virtual Workshop for Manufacturers
Construction Materials

June 14th

1:00 – 1:05 pm United States Energy Association (USEA) Introductions

1:05 – 1:35 pm U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) Introductory Remarks
Office of Fossil Energy and Carbon Management (FECD)
- A high-level overview of the Virtual and Regional Meetings
- FECM Strategic Vision
Mark Ackiewicz, Director Office of Carbon Management Technologies

Office of Clean Energy Demonstrations (OCED)
- IIJA funding opportunities
Melissa Klembara, Deputy Director for Portfolio Strategy

1:35 – 2:15 pm Importance of Responsible Carbon Conversion for Decarbonization
- Strategic Vision and Programmatic Update
- Enabling Technologies and Facilities – LCA, TEA, and Testing Facilities
- Overview of FECM BIL Provisions
- Audience Question & Answer
Amishi Claros, DOE-FECM's Carbon Conversion Program Manager
& Joseph Stoffa, National Energy Technology Laboratory (NETL) Technology Manager
2:15 – 2:45 pm  Societal Considerations and Impacts
Environmental, Energy, and Climate Justice
  •  Catherine Clark, AAAS Science & Technology Policy Fellow in DOE’s Office of FECM

Enabling Energy Jobs of the Future
  •  Christy Veeder, Senior Advisor in DOE’s Office of Energy Jobs

2:45 – 2:50 pm  ---------------------------------BREAK------------------------------------
USEA explains the breakout structure & rules before the break and will put individuals into their respective rooms during the break

2:50 – 3:00 pm  Breakout Introductions within breakout rooms

3:00 – 4:20 pm  Breakout Groups Discussions

The moderators will ask a series of questions to solicit input and ideas on challenges and opportunities and how this program could benefit stakeholders.

4:20 – 4:30 pm  Concluding remarks from USEA