

Energy Communities

During his first week in office, President Biden signed an Executive Order creating an Interagency Working Group (IWG) on Coal and Power Plant Communities and Economic Revitalization to support energy communities and energy workers across the nation.

OUR MISSION

- Create good-paying jobs
- Spur economic revitalization
- Remediate environmental damage
- Support energy workers

The IWG identified 25 communities across the country hard-hit by coal mine and power plant closures to be prioritized for focused federal investment.

IWG PURSUING A WHOLE OF GOVERNMENT APPROACH:

“We are getting more funding opportunities with more support to more energy communities, more quickly, and we’ve only just begun.”

- IWG Executive Director, and Director of U.S. DOE’s National Energy Technology Laboratory Brian Anderson, Ph.D.

IWG ACTING WITH URGENCY

- $330B+ | Currently available/planned formula funding for energy communities
- $180B+ | Currently available/planned competitive federal funding for energy communities
- $13B+ | Federal funding awarded thus far
- 9000+ | Personal connections made with energy community stakeholders
- 25+ | In-person and virtual workshops to date, to increase awareness and lower barriers to funding
